

Teachers raise funds for education

For Hometown News
News@hometownnewsol.com

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — Outdoor Fitness Camp organized a Zumba party on April 25 at Riverside Park to raise money for the Education Foundation.

The group of Liz Bowler, Lucy Church, Ana Creel, Tiffany Kleckner and Jill Price, owner and operator of CityFit, recruited sponsors, door prizes and more than 75 participants, to raise $1,000.

The funds will be used to support the Sneaker Exchange, the School Supply Fund, Great Ideas grants and the Indian River regional science and engineering fair program.

Developed by Ms. Price, the one-of-a-kind fundraiser combined health and wellness with the fast moving Zumba beat.

Zumba fuses Latin rhythms and easy-to-follow moves, to create a dynamic fitness program. The fitness workout features salsa, merengue, cumbia and reggaeton rhythms.

During the course of the two-hour event, more than 15 raffle prizes were awarded to participants.

The $10 ticket price provided a great work out and the opportunity to win the prizes from Subway, Island Skin Care, Carrabba's, Calvetti, Coastal Floors & Granite, Waldo's at the Driftwood Resort, Nail Art, Bootlegger's Mobile Bartender, Kata Japanese Restaurant, Dori, Cassara Chiropractic Center, Italian Grill, Beach Bum Art Gallery, Amalfi Grille and Tea & Chi.

Event sponsors were: Schumann Printing, DJ Kevo & the Reality Movement Reggae Band, Jenn Croom/Island Images, Cassara Chiropractic and Maui Wow!

"We had such a good time putting on this event that we plan on hosting a monthly 'Party in the Park'. We think it is a fun way to get the community to support our students and teachers," said Ms. Price.

To learn more about the future fitness events, visit www.cityfitflorida.com.

To attend a Zumba workout contact (772) 532-1881.

For more information about the Education Foundation of Indian River County, visit www.edfoundationirc.org.