

Indian River County

SECTION B • SATURDAY, MAY 9, 2009 • TCPALM.COM

During the course of the two-hour event more than 15 raffle prizes were awarded to participants.

The $10 ticket price provided a great work out and the opportunity to win the following prizes from: Subway, Island Skin Care, Carrabba's, Calvetti, Coastal Floors & Granite LLC, Waldo's at the Driftwood Resort, Nail Art - Vero Mall, Bootlegger's Mobile Bartender, Kata Japanese Restaurant, Dori, Cassara Chiropractic Center, Italian Grill, Beach Bum Art Gallery, Amalfi Grille and Tea & Chi.

Camp, for organizing the recent Zumba Party conducted April 25 at Riverside Park.

This enthusiastic group recruited sponsors, fabulous door prizes and more than 75 participants to raise $1,000. The funds will be used to support the Sneaker Exchange, the School Supply Fund, the Great Ideas! Grants and the Indian River Regional Science and Engineering Fair Program.

The Zumba Party - Education Foundation Fundraiser was developed by Jill Price. Price gathered her friends to offer a fundraiser that combines health and wellness with the Zumba beat.

Event sponsors were Schumann Printing, DJ Kevo & the Reality Movement Reggae Band, Jenn Croom/Island Images, Cassara Chiropractic and Maui Wowi.

To learn more about the future fitness events to benefit the Education Foundation of Indian River County, visit cityfitflorida.com. To attend a Zumba workout contact the event volunteers Liz Bowler (772-532-1881); Lucy Church (772) 778-1359; Ana Creel (321) 615-2487; or Tiffany Kleckner (772) 321-5629.

To learn more about the Education Foundation of Indian River County, visit: edfoundationirc.org.

EDUCATION FOUNDATION PARTICIPATES IN ZUMBA

The Education Foundation would like to thank Liz Bowler, Lucy Church, Ana Creel, Tiffany Kleckner and Jill Price, owner and operator of CityFit Outdoor Fitness